

MANAGED SD-WAN

---

We understand you are facing important business challenges, such as creating innovative products and services, maximizing the cloud adoption and optimizing your teleworkers productivity trying to improve cost and operational efficiencies while keeping cyber security under control.

Our Managed SD-WAN service addresses these business challenges by providing an innovative solution that helps you improve network agility and cost efficiency by incorporating an overlay smart network with full-service management.

INNOVATIVE SOLUTIONS THAT HELP IMPROVE YOUR NETWORK

FEATURES

Integration with underlay services such as MPLS, DIA, Broadband and Mobile 4G/LTE.

Secure SD-WAN service with built-in encryption and stateful firewall features.

Support of flexible routing scenarios to support advanced high-availability requirements.

Fully managed service with advance service analytics and real time monitoring.

An advanced Support Center that provides expert 24x7 service management support.

Customer portal with single pane of glass for service visibility and analytics over your SD-WAN infrastructure.

Application performance assurance based on traffic flows set by application business policies.

BENEFITS

- Business agility and faster time to market with simple branch installation and centralized network management.
- Improved end-user experience with high application performance.
- Cost-effective delivery of business applications with lower operational cost.
- Native integration with our multiple cloud providers and SaaS services across the region.
- Secure network with inbuilt security features preventing Internet threats.

SUPERIOR PERFORMANCE

Our fully managed SD-WAN services leverage our secure, edge network and SaaS gateways with embedded security. Our Managed SD-WAN service is running over our award-winning software-defined backbone to guarantee superior performance and reliability to your mission critical applications and business continuity.